Bealtaine Gathering

Age & Opportunity would like to invite you to The Gathering 2022 which takes place in Project Arts Centre Dublin 2 on Tuesday November 15th from 10am to 5pm.

Join us for the annual Bealtaine Festival networking event for our community of event organisers, artists, partners and supporters.

Featuring keynote speaker, bestselling author Patricia Scanlan, this year's event will look at different issues of diversity as it relates to older age through a series of inspiring presentations and talks.

Recent Bealtaine commissions such as 'Where Do All The Old Gays Go?': Experiences of the Older LGBTQIA+ Community in Ireland remind us of the power of representing the wide spectrum of older age and the richness of the stories it yields. We hope to continue providing a platform for such stories through the Bealtaine Festival, our resource and development programme, and events like The Gathering.

We're looking forward to sharing the full line-up for our first in-person Gathering since 2019 which includes presentations on gender balance in the arts, older LGBTQIA+ communities, intergenerational projects and the experiences of older artists.

It will also be a great opportunity for us to hear about issues facing organisers around the country and how we can better support you to plan fantastic events for Bealtaine 2023.

Tickets are €10 and on sale now.

Call for Applications for the 2023 Golden Fleece Award

The Trustees of the Golden Fleece Award invite applications for the 2023 Golden Fleece Award.

The Golden Fleece Award provides funding for artists working in all forms of visual, craft and applied arts. It is the largest prize open to both artists and makers in Ireland, and it aims to provide resources for creative practitioners to innovate and develop their work at a critical point in their careers. Emerging, mid-career, and established artists and makers currently resident in or originally from the island of Ireland are eligible to apply.

The Golden Fleece Award is an independent artistic prize established as a charitable bequest by Dublin-born artist, designer and educator Lillias Mitchell (1915-2000). Her intentions were set out in her Letter of Wishes to her Trustees, in which she stated that: My wish is to give artists a 'boost' in times of particular need... A Trust was formed to manage the Award following her death, and the first Golden Fleece Award was presented in 2002.

All applications are assessed by a specialist five-person Advisory Panel. Members of the Advisory Panel review the applications received and select a shortlist, before making recommendations to the Award's Trustees, who decide each year how the prize fund will be distributed. The Advisory Panel for the 2023 Golden Fleece Award includes Angela O'Kelly (Panel Chair, jeweller and Head of Design for Body & Environment at NCAD, Dublin), Roger Bennett (woodturner), Hugh Mulholland (Creative Director, Visual Arts at the Mac, Belfast), Clíodhna Shaffrey (Director, Temple Bar Gallery + Studios, Dublin), and Dr Audrey Whitty (Head of Collections & Learning, National Museum of Ireland).

The Golden Fleece Award normally consists of one or more main Awards, to which may be added smaller Merit / Commendation / Special Awards. The size of the total prize fund is usually in the region of €20,000. How the fund is divided among recipients in any given year is at the Trustees' discretion. In recent years, Awards of €12,000, €10,000, €5,000, €4,000 and €3,000 have been made. As a guide, applicants are generally advised to apply for funding in the region of €5,000 to €10,000.

Applications must be made via the Online Application Form on the Golden Fleece Award website before the deadline: 5pm, Friday 25 November 2022

There is no entry fee. Shortlisted applicants will be notified in February 2023, and award recipients announced in March 2023.

For a full description of entry criteria and to make an application, please visit www.goldenfleeceaward.com

Nov 11th: An Cailín Cuín Director: Colm Bairéad

Nine-year-old Cáit (Catherine Clinch) is sent by her dysfunctional family to spend the summer with an Aunt and Uncle she has never met before. Through the tender care of her aunt Eibhlín (Carrie Crowley) Cáit finally feels loved and safe. Despite himself, her uncle Sean (Andrew Bennett) forges a bond and for the first time, Cáit experiences the warmth of a loving home. The once quiet Cáit blossoms in their care, but in this house where there are meant to be no secrets, she discovers one.

Wonderfully recreating the feel of a country home in 1980s Ireland, An Cailín Cuín, adapted from Claire Keegan's acclaimed short story, Foster, is a genuine, deeply felt portrait of the bonds that sustain us.

Dec 9th: Róise & Frank - Directors Rachael Moriarty and Peter Murphy

Róise & Frank is set in the picturesque Ring peninsula in Co Waterford.

Róise (Bríd Ní Neachtain) is still in mourning following the sudden death of her husband Frank, is initially annoyed when a stray dog keeps mysteriously showing up at her door. But a series of eerie coincidences soon has Róise convinced that the dog is Frank, reincarnated.

'Frank Madra' soon proves a much-needed companion for both Róise and shy, hurling-loving local boy Maidhchi (Ruadhán de Faoite). But as the stray dog wins over the town, Róise's mean-spirited neighbour Donncha (Lorcan Cranitch) is not so convinced...

Róise & Frank is a delightful Irish-language film for the whole family: a comedy-drama that will draw out smiles, tears and plenty of laughs from audiences. It has proven a hit at several recent festivals at home and abroad, including winning the critics' award for Best Ensemble at the Dublin International Film Festival 2022.

REVIEWS:

The calendar is easy to use and organisers can register their events on the website. Cultural, Community and Sporting events are categorised under a range of headings and users may search by date or type of event. Categories include: Arts; Children's; Family; Comedy; Exhibitions; Fairs; Shows; Markets; Festival; Film; Heritage; Historical; Lectures; Readings; Music; Theatre, Sports & Outdoors.
