1.0 Built Heritage

1.0 Introduction

This volume sets out the list of Architectural Conservation Areas and the Record of Protected Structures for Tipperary, prepared in compliance with the Architectural Heritage Protection Guidelines for Planning Authorities (DAHG, 2009). This volume should be read in conjunction with Volume 1 Written Statement, Chapter 13 Built Heritage.

2.0 Architectural Conservation Areas

Section 81 of the Planning and Development Act 2000 (as amended) (the Act) describes an Architectural Conservation Area (ACA) as: “An area, place, group of structures or townscape of special architectural, historical, archaeological, artistic, cultural, scientific, social or technical interest, or an area that contributes to the appreciation of a protected structure”. 25 towns and villages have designated ACAs in Tipperary, these are listed below.

3.0 Record of Protected Structures

3.1 What is a Protected Structure

A Protected Structure is a structure or part of a structure that a planning authority considers is of special interest from an architectural, historical, archaeological, artistic, cultural, scientific, social or technical point of view. Details of Protected Structures are entered by a planning authority in a Record of Protected Structures (RPS), which forms part of the development plan. The protection given to a structure applies to all parts of the structure, including the interior, the land lying within the curtilage of the structure, any other structures lying within that curtilage and their interiors and all fixtures and features. Under Section 58 of the Planning and Development Act, 2000, as amended, each owner and occupier must ensure that a Protected Structure or any element of a Protected Structure is not endangered through harm, decay or damage, whether over a short or long period, through neglect or through direct or indirect means.

3.2 Works to a Protected Structure

The owner of a structure or feature that is a Protected Structure should seek advice before making any alteration to the interior or exterior of the structure or feature and should note that their exempted development rights may be restricted. Works to a Protected Structure can be carried out without planning permission only if the works do not affect the character of the structure or any element of the structure that contributes to its special interest. Section 57 of the Planning and Development Acts 2000 (as amended) allows for the owner or occupier of a Protected Structure or a Proposed Protected Structure to submit a written request to the planning authority to issue a Section 57 Declaration as to the type of works which it considers would or would not materially affect the character of the structure or any element of the structure, thereby clarifying which works would be considered exempted development.

3.3 Protected Structures in Tipperary

The RPS presented in this volume (Volume 4) sets out all Protected Structures in the Tipperary County Development Plan 2022 - 2028 area for the Local Towns, Service Centres, Local Service Centres, Settlement Nodes and the open countryside.

A review of the RPS for Clonmel, Nenagh and Thurles was carried out under Section 55 of the Act following the making of Local Area Plans for each of these towns and are now incorporated into the County RPS as Appendix 1 (Clonmel RPS), Appendix 2 (Nenagh RPS) and Appendix 3 (Thurles RPS).

The Town Plans (Carrick-on-Suir, Tipperary, Cashel and Templemore) as the case may be, contain an individual RPS pertaining to the plan area for that town. A review of each respective RPS will be carried out in tandem with the making of Local Area Plans for each of these towns after which they will be incorporated into the County RPS under Section 55 of the Act.
